A Message from Rabbi Abe

Dear AKSE Members and Friends,

As we approach the holiday of Sukkot (my favorite holiday), I would like to share with you about the uniqueness of this holiday.

The Torah emphasizes the importance of being happy and rejoicing on this holiday, as it says in Deuteronomy, 16:14-15:

וְשָׂמַחְתָּ בְּחַגֶּךָ אַתָּה וּבִנְךָ וּבִתֶּךָ וְעַבְדְּךָ וַאֲמָתֶךָ וְהַלֵּוִי וְהַגֵּר וְהַיָּתוֹם
וְהָאַלְמָנָה אֲשֶׁר בִּשְׁעָרֶיךָ׃

You shall rejoice in your festival, with your son and daughter, your male and female servant, the [family of the] Levite, the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow in your communities.

שִׁבְעַת יָמִים תָּחֹג לַה' אֱלֹהֶיךָ בַּמָּקוֹם אֲשֶׁר־יִבְחַר ה' כִּי יְבָרֶכְךָ
ה' אֱלֹקיךָ בְּכָל תְּבוּאָתְךָ וּבְכֹל מַעֲשֵׂה יָדֶיךָ וְהָיִיתָ אַךְ שָׂמֵחַ׃

You shall hold a festival for your God for seven days, in the place that God will choose; for your God will bless all your crops and all your undertakings, and you shall have nothing but joy.

According to the Torah, it is not enough to just rejoice on Sukkot but rather one shall strive to have nothing but joy.

In Leviticus 23:40, the Torah commands us to take the four species on Sukkot and again it emphasizes the importance of rejoicing on this holiday as it says:

וּלְקַחְתֶּם לָכֶם בַּיּוֹם הָרִאשׁוֹן פְּרִי עֵץ הָדָר כַּפֹּת תְּמָרִים וַעֲנַף
עֵץ־עָבֹת וְעַרְבֵי־נָחַל וּשְׂמַחְתֶּם לִפְנֵי ה' אֱלֹקיכֶם שִׁבְעַת יָמִים׃

On the first day you shall take the product of hadar trees, branches of palm trees, boughs of leafy trees, and willows of the brook, and you shall rejoice before your God seven days.

You may wonder, what is the connection between the ritual of gathering the four species and happiness?

WELCOME SERVICE AND DINNER FOR RABBI ABE AND ARIEL
Friday, October 20 at 7 PM

Please plan to join your fellow congregants as we officially welcome our new Spiritual Leader, Rabbi Abe, and his wife, Ariel. Kabbalat Shabbat services at 6:00 PM will be followed by Shabbat dinner at approximately 7:00 PM. Services and dinner will take place in Miller Hall in Immanuel Church, 2414 Pennsylvania Ave., next to our building.

Cost per dinner is $20 for adults and $9 for children ages 6-12. Children under 5 free. Registration and payment online at https://akse.wufoo.com/forms/welcome-dinner-for-rabbi-abe-and-ariel or by contacting the office at 302-762-2705. Deadline for registration is Thursday, October 12.

The Midrash (Leviticus Rabba, 30:12) tells us that the gathering of the four species symbolizes the uniting of the different categories among our people. The holiday of Sukkot teaches us a valuable lesson how inclusion and unity is a prerequisite for happiness. Only once we include all the people of our community within our joy, can we reach ultimate joy and happiness.

On that note, Ariel and I would like to express our deepest gratitude to all of you for making us feel so welcomed within your community. Thank you for all your love and support. It was so nice to meet many of you in person during the High Holidays, and we look forward to getting to know each one of you even better in the future.

Please join us for our open Sukkah on Sunday, Oct. 1, 2023 (Second Day of Sukkot), 3-5 PM at our new home 2426 Riddle Ave., Wilmington, DE 19806.

Chag Sameach,

Rabbi Abe

Rabbi Abe

ADULT EDUCATION CLASSES 2023-2024

Once again, the Adult Education Committee has arranged an exciting year of learning for you in 5784.

Torah Reading and Discussion: Eleanor Weinglass is teaching a class in reading and understanding Torah (the Chumash) on Thursday mornings at 9:30 a.m. in person.

There is also an opportunity for a new beginners' class in Hebrew. If you are interested, please call the office.

Chug Ivri: The Chug Ivri (Hebrew Speaking Club) is an opportunity to listen to and converse in Hebrew, translate a story, and even sing a song or two. All are welcome, whatever your level of proficiency. We help each other. Leader: Sylvia Wagman, virtual monthly meetings on Wednesdays at 4:00 p.m. via Zoom. (See Shofar for this month's date)

Films—Viewing and Discussion: Chase away those winter-time blues with thought-provoking Jewish-themed movies and spirited discussions. Movies will again be available for streaming from Saturday evening (after Shabbat) through Tuesday evening and will be followed by a virtual discussion on Tuesday evenings. Look for them in January, February, and March. Open to AKSE members only.

AKSE Academy: Returning in 2024. We shall again offer six classes on different facets of Judaism as they play out in contemporary life. We are considering what would best meet the needs of our congregants—a program in winter on a Saturday evening or a program in summer on a Sunday afternoon. Please send your preferences to haza@verizon.net.

We are again hoping for our virtual "twin" classes, in which we share one of our speakers with our friends in Brigantine, and they share a speaker with us. And, in addition, we hope to have a surprise speaker this year, known to all of you and spending a Sunday in April with us.

And now, last, but certainly not least, two new courses with Rabbi Abe.

Spaghetti and Talmud:

What do spaghetti and Talmud have in common? They are both long, entangled, and delicious. The Talmud is a collection of folklore, jokes, teachings, laws, sayings, wisdom, and practical (or not so practical) life advice deliberated by the ancient sages. Did you know that the first written reference to pasta comes from the Talmud? Join us in person or virtually via Zoom to find out.

Our source will be: A Bride for One Night: Talmud Tales by Ruth Calderon. This class requires registration in advance and a $5 donation per class to cover the cost of texts and food. Date and time TBA

Wrestling with Halacha (Jewish Law):

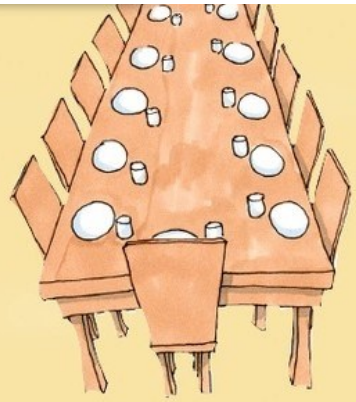
An exploration of a variety of (mostly modern) rabbinic responses focusing on how these rabbis have wrestled with assimilation, intermarriage, modernity, and tradition. We will examine how the rabbis relentlessly analyzed and interpreted classical rabbinic texts, endeavoring towards a new pedagogy for progressive Halacha. Sunday mornings, once monthly.

All these classes are open to the community and are free of charge, except as indicated.

EMMANUEL DINING ROOM DATE APPROACHING!
Volunteer Bakers Needed

We are proud to be a part of the network of local churches and synagogues which provides nutritious meals to needy individuals at Emmanuel Dining Room East. Feeding the hungry is such a basic mitzvah; for some of the people served by Emmanuel Dining Room, the meal we provide is their only meal of the day.

We will need bakers for our upcoming dates in November, December and January. Please contact Wendy Shlossman (pshlossman@comcast.net or 302-479-5599) or Karen Moss (hamorahkeren96@gmail.com or 302-478-4991), EDR Co-chairs, to volunteer your assistance for this important mitzvah. Baked goods for our November lunch commitment should be delivered to Wendy or Karen on Tuesday, November 6. Please call in advance to make drop-off arrangements. Donations to defray the expense of ingredients for the meal are gladly accepted.



In the Talmud, the mitzvah of feeding people is called Arukh ha-Shulhan. That means, "making our table longer." When we make sure that other people have enough to eat, we are making our own table longer.

WHAT'S COOKING IN YOUR KITCHEN?

As you can see, I think about holiday recipes, and I want to share this one with you. I will try to keep up until I hear from you about continuing my column. Your comments are important to me. My e-mail is: Merylleekauffman@gmail.com
I found a recipe that my family loved years ago. Great for a year round, easy peasy, delicious chicken recipe. Your family will love this. And it takes only 5 minutes to prepare. Pop it into the oven 20 minutes before you begin your meal.

Easy Glazed Honey Balsamic Chicken

8 servings, Oven at 475 degrees, Cook time 20 minutes

Ingredients

1/2 cup honey
1 T balsamic vinegar
2 t dried thyme (sometimes I use tarragon; I'm not a fan of thyme)
Salt and pepper, to taste
3 lbs chicken (This recipe calls for drumsticks and thighs, Adjust bake time for breasts.)

Line a rimmed baking cookie sheet with foil.
Place chicken on the baking pan and season it with salt and pepper. Rub it in to work the seasonings into the chicken.
Whisk honey, vinegar, and thyme in a small bowl.
Drizzle a small amount of glaze and use a brush to cover the chicken. Use about 2/3 for glaze and save rest.
Roasting time is 20 minutes. During the baking, brush the chicken several times with the remaining glaze.
Now it is done; just give it a quick brush. The chicken will be caramelized and yummy on the outside!

My mouth is watering while I am typing this recipe. I served it with spinach kugel (parve) or rice, or Israeli couscous. This just might be our dinner tomorrow night.

This recipe only takes about 5 minutes to prep. I think this could be a staple for family and friends.
Don't forget to share your ideas about this column! Happy Autumn with so many holidays to celebrate! Chag Sameach!

Meryl
